A response to the Reference is in preparation.

Meanwhile I submit the following observations:

a. We are not receiving any form of reporting by General Marshall and it appears that neither is anyone else in Washington, except on the very topmost level. Without such reporting, all the rest is like "Hamlet" without Hamlet.

b. On the lower level there is a reasonably adequate flow of information, except that there is virtually none from Communist-controlled areas.

2. In the latter connection, I attach a memorandum 25X1A previously prepared in the
